Table of Contents

Contributors

Foreword by J. Lyle Bootman

Preface

Part I. Status of Quality Improvement and Reporting in the U.S. Health Care System

1. Quality and the Future of Health Care, David P. Nau

2. Understanding Problems in the Use of Medications, David P. Nau and Duane M. Kirking

3. The Business Case for Pharmacy Quality, David A. Holdford

4. An Overview of Health Care Organizations Involved in Quality Improvement, Donna West-Strum

Part II. Quality Improvement Concepts

5. Health Care Quality Improvement, Terri L. Warholak and Ginger G. Scott

6. Recognizing and Defining Quality Problems, David A. Holdford

7. Identifying Causes of Quality Problems, Terri L. Warholak and Ana Hincapie

8. Statistical Process Control, Leticia R. Moczygemba and David A. Holdford

Part III. Quality Measurement

10. Consumer Assessment of Pharmacy Quality, Susan J. Blalock and San Keller

11. Risk Management, Kenneth Baker

Part IV. Quality-based Interventions and Incentives

12. Implementing Change to Enhance Quality, Ana C. Quiñones-Boex and Thomas J. Reutzel

14. Reporting on Health Care Quality, Terri Moore and David P. Nau

15. Aligning Financial Incentives for Quality, David P. Nau

Part V. Application of Quality Improvement to the Pharmacy Practice Setting

16. Responding to an Outside Assessment of Pharmacy Quality, Julie Kuhle and Lynne Schifreen

17. Implementing Your Own Pharmacy Quality Improvement Program, Terri L. Warholak and Mi Chi Song

Index