Table of Contents

PART I THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS
1. Justice, Health, and Health Care, Norman Daniels (Tufts University)
2. Justice and the Basic Structure of Health Care System, Paul Menzel (Pacific Lutheran University)
3. Multiculturalism and Just Health Care: Taking Pluralism Seriously, Jeffrey Blustein (Albert Einstein College of Medicine)
4. Utilitarian Approaches to Justice in Health Care, Matti Hyayry (University of Central Lancashire)
5. Aggregation and the Moral Relevance of Context in Health-Care Decision Making, David Wasserman (University of Maryland at College Park)
6. Why There is No Right to Health Care, Bernard H. Baumlrin (City University of New York)
7. Specifying the Content of the Human Right to Health Care, Howard E. Hershko and Elison Ruscavan (St. Louis State University; M. University of Arizona)
8. Gender and Gender Health Care, Disturbance, and the American Political Process, Bruce C. Vladeck and Eliot Fishman (Mount Sinai School of Medicine, both)
10. Treatment According to Need: Justice and the British National Health Service, Roger Crisp (St. Anne's College, Oxford)
11. Rationing Decisions: A Practical Procedure for Integrating Cost-Effectiveness with Other Values, Tony Hope, John Reynolds, and Sian Griffiths (University of Oxford; John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford; Oxfordshire Health Authority, Oxford)
12. Resources and Rights: Court Decisions in the UK, Richard B. Catterson (Cardiff University, Wales)
13. Justice and the Social Reality of Health: The Case of Australia, Mark Zedner and Peter Zedner (Memorial University; Victoria University, Australia)
15. Philosophical Reflections on Clinical Trials in Developing Countries, Barrack A. Brown (Rutgers College of Medicine)

PART II RATIONING AND ACCESS IN TODAY'S WORLD
16. Unequal By Design: Health Care, Distributive Justice, and the American Political Process, Bruce C. Vladeck and Eliot Fishman (Mount Sinai School of Medicine, both)
18. Rationing Decisions: A Practical Procedure for Integrating Cost-Effectiveness with Other Values, Tony Hope, John Reynolds, and Sian Griffiths (University of Oxford; John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford; Oxfordshire Health Authority, Oxford)
19. Resources and Rights: Court Decisions in the UK, Richard B. Catterson (Cardiff University, Wales)
20. Justice and the Social Reality of Health: The Case of Australia, Mark Zedner and Peter Zedner (Memorial University; Victoria University, Australia)

PART III SPECIAL NEEDS OF SOCIAL GROUPS
22. Racial Groups, Culture, and the Distribution of Health Care, Howard McGary (Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey)
23. Gender Justice in the Health Care System: Past Experiences, Present Failures, and Future Open Opportunities, E. Roy (University of North Carolina at Charlotte, both)
24. Disability, Racial Justice, Personalising Care, Reflecting Empathy, Anne Silvers
25. The Medical, the Moral, and the Social: The Relationships of Informed Consent, Howard B. Salsman (Private Practice)
26. Gender Justice in the Health Care System: Past Experiences, Present Failures, and Future Open Opportunities, E. Roy (University of North Carolina at Charlotte, both)
27. Just Rationing: Applying the Medical Model of Caring, Preventing Disability, and Social Justice in the Provision of Health Care, James L. Llewellyn (Ohio University Medical Center)
28. The Legal Protection of Women During the Women's Movement: The Case of Sexual Discrimination, Don Packer (Rutgers University of New York at Stony Brook)

PART IV DILEMMAS FOR MEDICINE AND HEALTH CARE SYSTEMS: ASSESSMENT AND PRIORITIES
29. Alternative Health Care: Limits of Science and Boundaries of Access, E. Haavi Morreim (University of Tennessee Health Science Center)
30. Justice and the Social Reality of Health: The Case of Australia, Mark Zedner and Peter Zedner (Memorial University; Victoria University, Australia)
31. Responsibility for Health Status, Lance K. Stell (Davidson College)
32. Does Distributive Justice Require Universal Access to Assisted Reproduction?, Mary Anne Warren (San Francisco State University)
33. Premature and Compromised Neonates, Ian R. Holzman (Mount Sinai Medical Center)
34. Artificial Intelligence: Do Future Possible Children Have a Just Claim to Sufficiently Health Genome?, Leonard M. Fleck (Michigan State University)