Table of Contents

Section I: Introduction and Overview
Chapter 1: Introduction (Timothy E. Quill and Franklin G. Miller)
Chapter 2: Hospice (Charles von Gunten)
Chapter 3: Palliative Care (Susan D. Block)

Section II: Ethical Challenges within Current Systems of Care
Chapter 4: Emerging Complexities in Pediatric Palliative Care (Renee Boss and Nancy Hutton)
Chapter 5: Patient-Centered Ethos in an Era of Cost Control: Palliative Care and Healthcare Reform (Diane E. Meier and Emily Warner)
Chapter 6: Palliative Care, Ethics and Interprofessional Teams (Sally A. Norton, Deborah Waldrop, and Robert Gramling)

Section III: Addressing Dimensions of Suffering
Chapter 7: Pain Relief and Palliative Care (Nathan Cherny)
Chapter 8: Management of Dyspnea (Thomas W. LeBlanc, David C. Currow, Jane L. Phillips, and Amy Abernethy)
Chapter 9: Diagnosis and Treatment of Delirium (Maxine De la Cruz and Eduardo Bruera)
Chapter 10: Psychosocial and Psychiatric Suffering (Yesne Alici, Kanan Modhwadia, William S. Breitbart)
Chapter 11: Capacity and Shared Decision-Making in Serious Illness (Ronald M. Epstein and Vikki Entwistle)

Section IV: Difficult Decisions Near the Very End of Life
Chapter 12: Withholding and Withdrawing Life-Sustaining Treatments (Robert D. Truog)
Chapter 13: Medical Futility. Content in the Context of Care (Peggy Determeyer and Howard Brody)
Chapter 14: Palliative Sedation (J. Andrew Billings)
Chapter 15: Voluntarily Stopping Eating and Drinking (Emily Rubin and James L. Bernat)
Chapter 16: Physician Assisted Death (Timothy E. Quill and Franklin Miller)
Chapter 17
17a: Lessons from Legalized Physician Assisted Death in Oregon and Washington: (Linda Ganzini)
17b: Physician Assisted Death in Western Europe: The Legal and Empirical Situation (Heleen Weyers)