Psychiatry's Contract with Society: Concepts, Controversies, and Consequences

Bhugra, Dinesh

Table of Contents

1. Introduction, Dinesh Bhugra
2. Psychiatry, Professionalism and Society: a note on past and present, George Ikkos
3. Professions, Related Occupations, and Ethics, Robin Bewrie
4. What is Expected of Doctors?, Lord Adebowale
5. Economics and Society: efficiency, equity and choice, Paul Freddolino and Martin Knapp
6. Stakeholders’ Expectations of Psychiatric Professionalism, Dinesh Bhugra, Susham Gupta, Genevieve Smyth, Martin Webber
7. Training and Professionalism, Greg Lydall and Amit Malik
8. What do Clinical Psychiatrists Expect?, Daniel McQueen, George Ikkos, Paul St John- Smith, Philip Kemp, Povl Munk-Jorgensen, and Albert Michael
9. Teaching Professionalism, Richard Cruess and Sylvia Cruess
10. Medicine’s Social Contract with Society: Its nature, evolution and present state, Sylvia Cruess and Richard Cruess
11. The Role of Psychiatrists and their Professional Associations in the Regulation and Performance Management of Mental Health Services, Paul Lelliott
12. Professionalism, Regulation, Scrutiny and Litigation, Carole Kaplan
14. Revalidation and Professionalism, Laurence Mynors-Wallis
15. Professionalism and Medicine: a managerial perspective, Naaz Coker
17. Psychiatric Ethics and the 'New Professionalism', Garry Walter and Michael Robertson
18. Psychiatry’s Contract: where now?, Dinesh Bhugra and Amit Malik