Table of Contents

1. The forensic autopsy
2. The pathophysiology of death
3. The establishment of identity of human remains
4. The pathology of wounds
5. Head and spinal injuries
6. Chest and abdominal injuries
7. Self-inflicted injury
8. Gunshot and explosion deaths
9. Transportation injuries
10. Abuse of human rights: deaths in custody
11. Burns and scalds
12. Electrical fatalities
13. Complications of injury
14. Suffocation and "asphyxia"
15. Fatal pressure on the neck
16. Immersion deaths
17. Neglect, starvation and hypothermia
18. Deaths associated with sexual offenses
19. Deaths associated with pregnancy
20. Infanticide and stillbirth
21. Sudden death in infancy
22. Fatal child abuse
23. Deaths associated with surgical procedures
24. Dysbarism and barotrauma
25. The pathology of sudden death
26. Forensic dentistry for the pathologist
27. Poisoning and the pathologist
28. Forensic aspects of alcohol
29. Carbon monoxide poisoning
30. Agrochemical poisoning
31. Poisoning by medicines
32. Death from narcotic and hallucinogenic drugs
33. Corrosive and metallic poisoning
34. Deaths from organic solvents