Table of Contents

1. Introduction: Globalisation, Urbanism and Cosmopolitanism Fever
2. The Mirage at the Heart of the Myth? Thinking About the White City
3. After the Cosmopolitan? The Limits of the Multicultural City and the Mutability of Racism
4. The Ghetto: Knowing your Place and the Performative Cartographies of Racial Subordination
5. Ethnic Entrepreneurs and Street Rebels: Looking Inside the Inner City
6. The Street: Street Sensibility?
7. The Cultural Quarter: Globalization, Hybridity and Curating Exotica
8. Tagging the City: Graffiti Practice and Transcultural Communication
10. The Plan Knowing Urbanism: Between the Allure of the Cosmopolitan and the Horror of the Postcolony