Table of Contents

THE LIFE CYCLE

Pregnancy and childbirth • Reproductive issues • Development in early infancy • Childhood and child health • Adolescence • Adulthood and mid age • Aging • Bereavement.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE PERSON

What is personality? • Understanding learning • Perception • Memory and forgetting • Development of sexuality • Intelligence • Development of thinking.

SOCIETY AND HEALTH

Understanding groups • Concepts of health, illness and disease • Measuring health and illness • Changing patterns of health and illness • Social class and health • Gender and health • Ethnicity and health • Quality of life • Media and health • Aging, society and health • Housing, homeless and health • Work and health • Unemployment and health • Labeling and stigma.

PREVENTING ILLNESS AND PROMOTING HEALTH

What is prevention? • Medical screening • The social implications of the new genetics • Changing individual behaviour • The social context of behavioural change • Health promotion in medical practice • Illegal drugs • Alcohol problems • Smoking • Eating and its effect • Perceptions of risk and risk-taking behaviour.

ILLNESS BEHAVIOUR AND DOCTOR-PATIENT ENCOUNTER

Deciding to consult • Seeing the doctor • Placebo • Patient adherence • Communication skills • Breaking bad news • Self care and alternative treatment • The experience with hospitals • Psychological preparation for surgery.

ILLNESS AND DISABILITY

Heart disease • Social aspects of HIV/AIDS • Cancer • Anxiety • Depression • Inflammatory bowel disease • Physical disability • Learning disability • Post traumatic stress disorder • Diabetes • Stress and health • Respiratory • Death and dying.

COPING WITH ILLNESS AND DISABILITY

Counselling • Adaptation, coping and control • Stress management • Cognitive-behaviour therapy • Role of carers • Self-help groups • Palliative care • Complementary therapies • Management of pain • Health beliefs and health behaviour.

HOW DO HEALTH SERVICES WORK?

Organising and funding health care • Assessing needs • Setting priorities and rationing • Community care.

HOW DO YOU FIT INTO ALL THIS?

Medical students’ experience • Being a junior doctor • The profession of medicine.