Table of Contents

Pt. I. Therapeutic interventions
Psychiatric intensive care - development and definition
   M. Dominic Beer, Stephen M. Pereira, Carol Paton
Management of acutely disturbed behaviour
   M. Dominic Beer, Carol Paton, Stephen M. Pereira
De-escalation
   Roland Dix, Mathew J. Page
Rapid tranquillisation
   Caroline L. Holmes, Helen Simmons
Pharmacological therapy
   Chike I. Okocha
Psychological approaches to the acute patient
   Marc Kingsley
Psychological approaches to longer-term patients presenting with challenging behaviours
   Brian Malcolm McKenzie
Seclusion-past, present and future
   Roland Dix, Christian Betteridge, Mathew J. Page
Restraint and physical intervention
   Roland Dix
The complex needs patient
   Zerrin Atakan, Venugopal Duddu
Therapeutic activities within Psychiatric Intensive Care and Low Secure Units
   Faisal Kazi, Brenda Flood, Sarah Hooton
Risk assessment and management
   Stephen M. Pereira, Sabrina Pietromartire, Maurice Lipsedge

Pt. II. Interface issues
The provision of intensive care in forensic psychiatry
   Harvey Gordon
The interface with forensic services
   James Anderson
Supporting people with learning disabilities on general psychiatric wards, PICUs and LSUs
   Andrew Flynn
The interface with general psychiatric services
   Trevor Turner
The interface with the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS)
   Gordana Milavic
Severe mental illness and substance abuse
   Zerrin Atakan
Social work issues in PICUs and LSUs
   David Buckle
User and carer involvement
   Kate Woollaston, Stephen M. Pereira

Pt. III. Management of the Psychiatric Intensive Care Unit/Low Secure Unit
Setting up a new Psychiatric Intensive Care Unit: principles and practice
   Andrew W. Procter, David Ridgers
Physical environment
   Roland Dix, Mathew J. Page
Managing the Psychiatric Intensive Care Unit
   Phil Garnham
Multidisciplinary teams within PICUs/LSUs
   Andy Johnston, Stephen Dye
National Standards and good practice
   Stephen Dye, Andy Johnston, Naviyoat Chhina

Index