Table of Contents

Unit I. Fundamentals: Baseline Nutrition in Healthy States
Pregnancy and Lactation
  Julie Saltman Roberti, Patricia Worthington
Infants, Toddlers, and Preschool Children
  Julie Saltman Roberti, Patricia Worthington
School-Age Children and Adolescents
  Julie Saltman Roberti, Patricia Worthington
Young, Middle-Age, and Older Adults
  Karen Rogers, Patricia Worthington

Unit II. Nutrition and Illness
The Role of Nutrition in Health Promotion and Disease Prevention
  Julie Saltman Roberti, Patricia Worthington
Nutritional Assessment and Planning in Clinical Care
  Patricia Worthington

Unit III. Oral Nutrition
Ensuring Safe and Adequate Oral Intake
  Adeline Schultz, Patricia Worthington
Managing Symptoms That Affect Nutritional Intake During Illness
  Patricia Worthington

Therapeutic Diets
  Patricia Worthington

Unit IV. Enteral Nutrition
Selecting Candidates and Delivery Methods for Enteral Nutrition
  Patricia Worthington, Laurie Reyen
Equipment and Formulas for Enteral Nutrition
  Patricia Worthington, Laurie Reyen
Initiating and Managing Enteral Nutrition
  Patricia Worthington, Laurie Reyen

Unit V. Parenteral Nutrition
Parenteral Nutrition: Indications and Composition of Formulas
  Patricia Worthington, Laurie Reyen
Administration and Management of Parenteral Nutrition
  Patricia Worthington, Laurie Reyen
Venous Access Devices for Parenteral Nutrition
  Patricia Worthington, Laurie Reyen

Unit VI. Pharmacologic Considerations
Drug-Nutrient Interactions
  Joseph Boullata
Pharmacologic Issues Related to Enteral and Parenteral Nutrition
  Joseph Boullata
Dietary Supplements, Functional Foods, and Ergogenic Aids
  Joseph Boullata, Patricia Worthington

Unit VII. Nutritional Considerations in Specific Disease States
Nutritional Management of Gastrointestinal Disorders
  Vincent Armenti, Patricia Worthington
Nutritional Implications of Selected Medical Conditions
  Vincent Armenti, Patricia Worthington