Table of Contents

Ch. 1. Anticipating Occupations of Mothering and the Development of Agency
Ch. 2. Mothering Co-occupations in Caring for Infants and Young Children
Ch. 3. The Physical Day-to-Day Care of Young Children: Methods and Meanings
Ch. 4. Maternal Management of Home Space and Time to Facilitate Infant/Toddler Play and Development
Ch. 5. Toys for Shade and the Mother-Child Co-occupation of Play
Ch. 6. Mothering in the Context of Unpaid Work and Play in Families
Ch. 7. Teenage Mothers: Roles, Occupations, and Societal Challenges
Ch. 8. Mothering Across the Lifecourse
Ch. 9. Mothering Capacity and Social Milieu
Ch. 10. Experience of Mothers with Disabilities: Learning from Their Voice
Ch. 11. Mothers with Chronic Illness: Reconstructing Occupation
Ch. 12. Mothers with Mental Illness: An Occupation Interrupted
Ch. 13. Mothering from Prison: It Can be Done!
Ch. 14. Activism As A Mothering Occupation
Ch. 15. Mothering Work: Negotiating Healthcare, Illness and Disability, and Development
Ch. 16. Mother Time: The Art and Skill of Scheduling in Families of Children with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
Ch. 17. Family-centered Care: Mothers' Occupations of Caregiving and Home Therapy Programs
Ch. 18. Mothering Children with Disabilities in the Context of Welfare Reform
Epilogue
Index