Table of Contents

1. Childhood Occupational Roles

1. Occupation and Participation: The Heart of Pediatric Occupational Therapy Kids Want to do Kid Things
   Shelly J. Lane

2. Voices of Children Kids Talk About Being Kids
   Imelda Burgman

3. Children at Play Can I Play, Too?
   Anita C. Bundy

4. Early Intervention Getting Off to a Good Start
   Christine Doyle Morrison

5. Preschool I'm Learning Now!
   Shelley Mulligan

6. School Participating in More Than Just the Classroom
   Chris Chapparo & Susan Lowe

7. Transitioning to Adulthood What Will I Be When I Grow Up
   Pat L. Sample, Anita C. Bundy, Shelly J. Lane, & Reinie Cordier

8. Self-Care: A Primary Occupation I Can Do It Myself!
   Jayne Shepherd

2. The Context of Pediatric Practice

9. Building Intervention from Theory From LEGOs and Tinkertoys to Skyscrapers
   Jim Hinojosa & Ruth Segal

10. Ecocultural Theory: Everyday Cultures of Children Living in a Lot of Different Worlds
    Gwynnyth Llewellyn

11. Cultural Competence When the Rules are Different
    Maureen H. Fitzgerald

12. Pediatric OT in the United States Understanding Laws, Policies and Regulations for Practice
    Patricia L. Davies

13. Pediatric OT in Canada Grounding Practice in the Rights of Equality
    Patty Rigby & Shone Joos

14. Pediatric OT in the United Kingdom Focusing Practice on the Health and Welfare of Children
    Dido Green & Carolyn Dunford

15. Pediatric OT in Australia Recognizing Multiculturalism in Policy
    Chris Chapparo

3. Overview of the Intervention Process

16. Pediatric Therapy Teams How Many Perspectives are on the Team?
    Barbara Harl, Jayne Shepherd, & Jo Read

17. Services in Emerging Practice Arenas What's an OT Doing Here?
    Winifred Schultz-Krohn (with contribution by Nancy Rushford & Kerry Thomas)

18. Assessment, Measurement, and Evaluation Why Can't I Do What Everyone Expects Me To Do?
    Ted Brown
19. Setting Goals that Express the Possibilities If We Don’t Know Where We’re Going, How Will We Know When We Get There?
Steve Park

20. Direct Intervention What Should We Play Today?
Zoe Mailloux & Susanne Smith Roley

21. Indirect Intervention: Teaching Therapeutic Techniques The OT Doesn’t Do It All
Stacey Szklut

22. Consultation Can I Talk to You a Minute?
Jennie Brentnall & Anita C. Bundy

4. Pediatric Conditions and Their Impact on the Lives of Children

23. Disorders of Eating and Feeding, and Disorders Following Prenatal Substance Exposure Why Won’t My Baby Eat?
Shelly J. Lane

24. Sensory Processing Disorders Feels Awful and Doesn’t Sound Very Good, Either!
Marie E. Anzalone & Shelly J. Lane

25. Neuromotor Disorders Can I Learn To Walk?
Cheryl Missiuna, Helene Polatajko, Nancy Pollock, & Debra Cameron

26. Autism Spectrum Disorders Isn’t a “Spectrum” Like a Rainbow?
Sylvia Rodger & Jenny Ziviani

27. Emotional and Behavioral Disorders Hey, Lady, Can’t You Control Your Kid?
Anne Cronin

28. Learning Disabilities and Intellectual Disabilities Why Is This So Hard For Me?
Chris Chapparo & Shelly J Lane

29. Visual and Auditory Disorders What Does Soft Look Like?
Luisa Ferronato, Stephanie Kain, & Natalie Kaine

30. Multitraumatic Injuries From Emergency to Rehabilitation
Scott Tomchek & Leisa Aberli

5. Putting It All Together

31. Cases as Synthesis The Lessons Kids Teach OTs
Anita C. Bundy, Stacey Szklut, & Jayne Shepherd (with contributions by Sheryl Michel)

32. Reflections on Pediatric Practice Love Working with Kids!
Anita C. Bundy