Table of Contents

I. How Nurses Think

1. Nursing Past & Present
2. Critical Thinking & Nursing Process
3. Assessing
4. Diagnosing
5. Planning Outcomes
6. Planning Interventions
7. Implementing & Evaluating
8. Theory, Research, & Evidence-Based Practice

II. Factors Affecting Health

9. Development: Infancy Through Middle-Age
10. Development: Older Adulthood
11. Experiencing Health & Illness
12. Stress & Adaptation
13. Psychosocial Health & Illness
14. Family
15. Culture & Ethnicity
16. Spirituality
17. Loss, Grief, & Dying

III. Essential Nursing Interventions
18. Documenting & Reporting

19. Vital Signs

20. Communication & Therapeutic Relationships

21. Physical Assessment

22. Infection Prevention & Control

23. Safety

24. Hygiene

25. Medicating Patients

26. Teaching & Learning

27. Health Promotion

IV. Supporting Physiological Function

28. Nutrition

29. Bowel Elimination

30. Urinary Elimination

31. Sensory Perception

32. Pain

33. Activity & Exercise

34. Sexual Health

35. Sleep & Rest

36. Skin Integrity & Wound Healing

37. Oxygenation

38. Circulation & Perfusion

39. Fluids, Electrolytes, & Acid-Base Balance

V. The Context for Nurses’ Work

40. Perioperative Nursing
41. Home & Community Nursing

42. Nursing Ethics

43. Legal Issues

44. Nursing Informatics

45. Leadership & Management (Online at DavisPlus)

46. Holistic Healing (Online at DavisPlus)