Women of Vision: Their Psychology, Circumstances and Success

Gavin, Eileen A. PhD

Table of Contents

Contributors
Foreword, Agnes N. O'Connell, PhD
Acknowledgments
Introduction

Part I: Women Whose Lives Spanned Two Centuries
1. Dancing Women's Freedom: The Story of Isadora Duncan, Miriam Roskin Berger, Ilene Serlin, and Mary Anne Siderits
2. Anne Sullivan Macy and Helen Adams Keller: Expressing "Vision" with Fluttering Fingers, Hendrika Vande Kemp
3. Lillian Evelyn Moller Gilbreth: The Woman Who "Had It All", Melba J. T. Vasquez
4. Alice Paul: Constitutional Amendment Mover and ERA Author, Carole A. Rayburn
5. Georgia O'Keefe: American Modernist, Lillian Cartwright
7. Anna Eleanor Roosevelt: The Evolution of an Extraordinary Leader, Agnes N. O'Connell

Part II: Women Who Matured During the "Roaring Twenties"
8. Rachel Carson: The Strength of Wonder, Ravenna Helson
9. "Be-Going": The Story of Dorothy Day, Mary Anne Siderits
10. Sister Annette Walters's Unfinished Dream: "To Make the Universe a Home," Eileen A. Gavin
11. Evelyn Gentry Hooker: The "Hopelessly Heterosexual" Psychologist Who Normalized Homosexuality, Joanne Quarfoth Floyd and Lynda Anne Szymanski,
12. Athlete of the Century: "Babe" Didrikson Zaharias, Lee Joyce Richmond
13. Lucille Ball: Visions of Trauma, Crisis, and Comedy, Calvin Saxton
14. Grace Brewster Murray Hopper: A Woman Who Dared and Did, Debra Sue Pate

Part III: Women Who Became Adults in the Nineteen Forties
15. Ella Fitzgerald: The Singer's Singer, Beverly Greene
16. Shirley Chisholm: A Catalyst for Change, Barbara L. Biales
17. The Case of the Purloined Picture: Rosalind Franklin and the Keystone of the Double Helix, Michael Wertheimer

Part IV: A Second Look at Our Women of Vision
18. A Second Look at Our Women of Vision

Appendix: Study Questions for Chapters 1 to 17
Index