Toward Equity in Health: A New Global Approach to Health Disparities

Wallace, Barbara C. PhD

Table of Contents

Contributors
Preface
Acknowledgments
1. Introduction: The Forces Driving and Embodied Within a New Field of Equity in Health, Barbara C. Wallace

PART 1: New Theory, Paradigms, and Perspectives
2. Challenges in Eliminating Health Disparities, Bailus Walker, Jr.

PART 2: New Procedures and Policies--Implications for Funders, Researchers, and Policy Makers
5. What Types of Public Health Proposals Should Agencies be Funding and What Types of Evidence Should Matter?: Scientific and Ethical Considerations, David R. Buchanan and John P. Allegrante
7. Perspectives on Mechanisms of Racial Disparities in Hypertension, Gbenga Ogedegbe, Antoinette Schoenthaler, and Senaida Fernandez
8. Incessant Displacement and Health Disparities, Mindy Thompson Fullilove

PART 3: The Legacy and Role of Racism--Implications and Recommendations for Research and Practice
9. Strategies for Reducing Disparities in African Americans' Receipt and Use of Mental Health Services, Madonna G. Constantine, Mai M. Kindaichi, Sheila V. Graham, and Nicole L. Watkins

PART 4: Collaborations, Partnerships, and Community-Based Participatory Research
13. Grant-Writing for Community-Based Health Disparities Research and Services: The Role of Academic/Community Partnerships, Brenda D. Hayes

PART 5: New Internet Technology--Achieving Wide Dissemination and Global Reach
17. A Role for Health Informatics and Information Technology (HIIT): Shaping A Global Research Agenda to Eliminate Health Disparities, Diane L. Adams and Brenda A. Leath
18. An Online Multimedia Peer Education Smoking Cessation Program for Korean Youth: A Film Script Contest for Stories on Quitting Smoking, Kyungmi Woo

PART 6: Training Community Health Workers and Peer Educators
20. The Social Education and Health Advocacy Training (SEHAT) Project: Training Peer Educators in Indian Prisons to Increase Health Awareness and Preventive Behavior for HIV, Amrita Bahl
21. Training Peer Educators, Black MSM Leadership, and Partners for Ethnographic Community-Based Participatory Research, L. Philip Johnson and Barbara C. Wallace

PART 7: Closing Gaps in Health for Special Populations
22. Recommendations for Researchers and Clinicians Working at the Intersection of the HIV/AIDS and Methamphetamine Epidemics with MSM, Jose Nanin, Yves-Michel Fontaine, and Barbara C. Wallace
23. Lesbian and Bisexual Women of Color, Racism, Heterosexism, Homophobia, and Health: A Recommended Intervention and Research Agenda, Beverly Greene, Marie L. Miville, and Angela D. Ferguson
24. Ethnic/Racial Disparities in Gay-Related Stress and Health Among Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Youths: Examining a Prevalent Hypothesis, Margaret Rosario, Eric W. Schrimshaw and Joyce Hunter
25. Health Disparities and People with Disabilities, Richard M. Keller and Joe P. King

PART 8: Closing the Education and Health Gaps—Addressing Dual Inter-Related Disparities Through Effective Engagement
26. Classroom-Based Interventions to Reduce Academic Disparities between Low-Income and High-Income Students, Denise E. Ross and Yemonja Smalls
27. Cultivating Academic Ability Through Exposure to Supplementary Education, Beatrice L. Bridglall and Edmund W. Gordon
28. A Supplementary Education Model Rooted in an Academic, Community, and Faith-Based Coalition: Closing the Education and Health Gaps, Angela Campbell and Barbara C. Wallace
29. So No Child is Left Behind: A Peer Mentoring/Tutoring Program for At-Risk Urban Youth Attending a College Preparatory High School, Adrienne Chew and Barbara C. Wallace
30. A Model for Comprehensive Community-Wide Asthma Education Using Partnerships and the Public School Curriculum, Betty Perez-Rivera and Natalie Langston-Davis
31. Conclusion: The Future of the Field of Equity in Health, Barbara C. Wallace

Index