Nursing Leadership for Patient-Centered Care: Authenticity Presence Intuition Expertise

Forman, Harriet EdD, RN

Table of Contents

Foreword: Reforming Patient Care From the Bedside
Deborah M. Tascone, MS, RN

Acknowledgments

Introduction

Prologue: Listening With the Third Ear: Or- The Philosophical Underpinnings of This Book
Patricia Munhall, EdD, ARNP, PsyA, FAAN

1. The Three Cs: Collaboration, Communication, and Cooperation

2. The Organization: Shifting Authority and Communication From Top Down to Patient Centered

3. Leadership/Management-Can You Tell Them Apart?

4. Labor and Management: Need Not Be Adversarial

5. Personality Traits-The Keys to the Kingdom

6. Bridging the Cultural Divide

7. Spirituality and Nursing: Challenges, Dilemmas, and Occasional Successes
Barbara Stevens Barnum, RN, PhD, FAAN

8. Grief: Part of the Human Condition

9. Ethics, Morality, Critical Thinking, and Use and Abuse of Power: Are There Missing Links?

10. The Epilogue-Nursing: What It Is and What It Should Be

Bibliography

Index