Table of Contents

Contributors

Preface

Ch. 1. Negotiating Patient Participation
   Debra L. Doyle, Robert Sine

Pt. I. Common Disability Syndromes

Ch. 2. Disability Syndrome of Hemiplegia
   Robert Sine

Ch. 3. Disability Syndrome of Spinal Cord Injury
   Stanley K. Yarnell

Ch. 4. Head Injury Rehabilitation
   Zvi Kalisky, Daniel P. Morrison, Patrick M. Plenger

Ch. 5. Hip Fracture Rehabilitation
   Michael K. Yoshida

Ch. 6. Rehabilitation after Lower Limb Amputation
   Robert Quinn

Ch. 7. Rehabilitation after Total Knee Arthroplasty
   Michael K. Yoshida

Ch. 8. Disability Syndrome of Parkinsonism
   Robert Sine

Ch. 9. The Late Effects of Polio
   Stanley K. Yarnell

Ch. 10. Disability Syndrome of Arthritis
   Robert Sine

Pt. II. Common Medical Problems Associated with Disability Syndromes

Ch. 11. Management of Chronic Pain
   David C. Bradshaw, Gerald P. Keane

Ch. 12. Special Considerations in the Rehabilitation Management of the Elderly
   Franz U. Steinberg

Ch. 13. Identification and Management of Bladder Problems
   Shelly E. Liss

Ch. 14. Pressure Sores: Development, Pathogenesis, Prevention, and Treatment
   Robert Sine

Ch. 15. Identification and Management of Bowel Problems
   Robert Sine

Pt. III. Rehabilitation Management

Ch. 16. Progressive Mobilization
   Georgianna Burbidge Wilson

Ch. 17. Self-Care Training: Hemiplegia, Lateralized Stroke Program, Parkinsonism, Arthritis, and Spinal Cord Dysfunction
   Robert Sine, Mahendra Shah, Ruth Avidan

Ch. 18. Wheelchairs: Selection, Uses, Adaptation, and Maintenance
   Georgianna Burbidge Wilson

Ch. 19. What Is the Role of Rehabilitation Psychology?
   Ronald M. Ruff

Ch. 20. Psychosocial Intervention and Discharge Planning
   Patti Aldredge, Frances Pendergraft, Barbara Henley

Ch. 21. Better Teaching and Lifelong Learning in Rehabilitation
   Robert E. Roush, J. David Holcomb

Index