Neurogenic Communication Disorders: A Functional Approach

Worrall, L

Table of Contents

Contributors
Preface

Sect. 1. Assessment of Functional Communication
   Linda E. Worrall
2. The Assessment of Activity Limitation in Functional Communication: Challenges and Choices
   Bronwyn J. Davidson, Linda E. Worrall
3. Beyond Activity: Measuring Participation in Society and Quality of Life
   Fabiane M. Hirsch, Audrey L. Holland
4. Perspectives and Priorities: Accessing User Views in Functional Communication Assessment
   Susan P. Parr, Sally C. Byng
5. Health-Care Restructuring and its Focus on Functional Outcomes in the United States
   Carol M. Frattali
6. The Assessment of Functional Communication in Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Populations
   Rosemary Baker

Sect. 2. Functional Communication Therapy Approaches
7. Functional Communication and the Workplace: A Neglected Domain
   Claire Penn, Dilys Jones
8. Forging Partnerships with Volunteers
   Linda E. Worrall, Edwin Yiu
9. Finding, Defining, and Refining Functionality in Real Life for People Confronting Aphasia
   Jon G. Lyon
10. Social Approaches to the Management of Aphasia
    Nina N. Simmons-Mackie

Sect. 3. Assessment and Treatment of Functional Communication in Specific Populations
11. The Influence of Professional Values on the Functional Communication Approach in Aphasia
    Linda E. Worrall
12. Functional Communication in Cognitive Communication Disorders Following Traumatic Brain Injury
    Brigette M. Larkins, Linda E. Worrall, Louise M. H. Hickson
13. A Framework for the Assessment and Treatment of Functional Communication in Dementia
    Rosemary Lubinski, J. B. Orange
14. Assessment and Treatment of Functional Communication in Dysarthria
    Pamela M. Enderby
15. Assessment and Treatment of Functional Swallowing in Dysphagia
    Barbara C. Sonies
16. Assessment and Treatment of Functional Communication Following Right Hemisphere Damage
    Leora R. Chemey, Anita S. Halper

Sect. 4. Assessment and Treatment of Functional Communication in Different Settings
17. A Socioenvironmental Approach to Functional Communication in Hospital In-Patients
    Robyn T. McCooy, Deborah Toffolo, Chris Code
18. Assessment and Treatment of Functional Communication in an Extended Care Facility
    Deborah J. Pye, Linda E. Worrall, Louise M. H. Hickson

Sect. 5. Future Directions and Research Needs
19. Future Directions and Research Issues in Functional Communication Assessment and Treatment
    Linda E. Worrall

Index