Table of Contents

1. Tracking developments in mental health practice.
   Jane Cronin-Davis and Cathy Long.

2. It’s like having Tigger in the classroom.
   Sarah Lloyd.

3 Enhancing self-efficacy in managing major depression.
   Gill Richmond.

4 Occupational therapy interventions for someone experiencing severe and enduring mental illness.
   Lindsay Rigby and Ian Wilson.

5 Not drowning but waving: working with female survivors of childhood sexual abuse.
   Cathy Long.

6 Personality disorder: occupational therapy inclusion.
   Jane Cronin-Davis.

7 Dual diagnosis: learning disabilities and dementia. Working towards ensuring people with a dual diagnosis receive quality services.
   Mandy Boaz.

8 Working with John Lane: a person-centred approach to supporting the person with dementia and their carers.
   Caroline Wolverson.

9 Exploring lived experiences of occupational therapy and dementia.
   Sue Bower.