Guide to Qualitative Field Research

Bailey, Carol A.

Table of Contents

- About the Author
- Preface
  - Acknowledgments
- 1. Introduction to Qualitative Field Research
  - Overview
  - History of Field Research
  - Status Characteristics
  - Summary
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 2. Ethical Issues in Qualitative Field Research
  - Informed Consent
  - Deception
  - Confidentiality
  - Institutional Review Board
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 3. Prelude to Qualitative Fieldwork
  - Selecting a Research Topic
  - Ethical Issues
  - Practicality
  - Accessibility
  - The Familiar Versus the Unfamiliar
  - Record Keeping
  - Goals and Research Questions
  - Review of Literature
  - Final Preparations
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 4. The Infrastructure of Qualitative Field Research
  - Paradigms
  - Theory
  - Traditions of Inquiry
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 5. Methodology
  - Sampling
  - Gaining Entrance
  - Arrival in the Field
  - Key Actors
  - Informed Consent
  - Field Relationships
  - Triangulation
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 6. Observations
  - Planning Observations
  - Observations of Physical Surroundings
  - Observations of Participants
  - Observations of Actions
  - Ethics
  - Summary
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 7. Interviews
  - Unstructured Interviews
  - Structured Interviews
  - Semistructured Interviews
  - Selecting the Appropriate Type of Interview
  - Question Construction
  - Framing the Interview
  - Ethics
  - Status Characteristics
  - Terminating the Interview
  - Chapter Highlights
  - Exercises
- 8. Field Notes and Leaving the Field
  - Content of Field Notes
  - Guidelines for Writing Field Notes
  - Leaving the Field
  - Chapter Highlights