Table of Contents

Preface
Ch 1. The First Contact
  Treatment Works
  The Motivational Interview
  How to Develop the Therapeutic Alliance
  Questions to ask the Adult Client
  Questions to ask the Adolescent Client
  Questions to ask the Parent/Caregiver
  What to do if There are One or More Red Flags
  Natural History of Addiction
  How to Diagnose an Addiction Problem
  How to Intervene
  How to Assess Motivation
  Motivating Strategies

Ch 2. The Drugs
  CNS Depressants
  The Hallucinogens
  The Reinforcing Properties of Drugs
  Tolerance and Dependence
  Alcohol
  Alcohol-Induced Organic Mental Disorders
  Sedatives, Hypnotics and Anxiolytics
  Opioids
  Cocaine and Amphetamines
  Inhalants
  Nicotine
  Polysubstances
  Treatment Outcome

Ch 3. The First Few Hours of Treatment
  The First Few Hours
  How to Greet Clients
  Examples
  How to Handle Family Members
  Beginning the Therapeutic Alliance
  The Importance of Trust
  Dealing with Early Denial
  Example of an Initial Contact
  The Initial Assessment
  Referral
  How to Conduct a Crisis Intervention
  Diagnostic and Statistical Manual
  Diagnosis: Drug Abuse
  Diagnosis: Chemical Dependency
  Pathological Gambling
  How to Determine the Level of Care Needed
  Criteria for Inpatient Treatment (Adults)
  Criteria for Outpatient Treatment (Adolescents)
  Treatment of Inpatient Treatment (Adolescents)
  The Client's Reaction to Intoxication
  What to do with an Intoxicated Client
  Detoxification
  How Clients React to Detoxification
  The AMA Threat
  How to use the AMA Team
  How to use the In-House Intervention
  How to respond to Clients who Leave AMA

Ch 4. The Biopsychosocial Interview
  How to Conduct the Interview
  A Sample Biopsychosocial Interview

Ch 5. The Treatment Plan
  How to Build a Treatment Plan
  The Diagnostic Summary
  The Problem List
  How to Develop a Problem List
  Goals and Objectives
  How to Develop Goals
  How to Develop Objectives
  How to Select Goals, Objectives and Interventions
  Treatment Plan Review
Documentation
How to Write Progress Notes
Formal Treatment Plan Review

Ch 6. Individual Treatment
The Therapeutic Alliance
How to Develop a Therapeutic Alliance
How to be Reinforcing
How to Use Empathy
Transference and Countertransference
How to be Confrontive
Behavior Therapy
How Clients Learn Habits
Changing a Habit
What is Reinforcement?
What is Punishment?
The Behavior Chain
The Importance of Reinforcement
How to Use Punishment
When a Client Breaks a Rule
Why we Concentrate on Behavior Therapy
Cognitive Therapy
How Chemically Dependent People Think
Defense Mechanisms
Applying Cognitive Therapy
Automatic Thoughts
How to Correct Inaccurate Thoughts
Uncover the Thoughts and Feelings
Score the Inaccurate Feelings
Getting the Thoughts Accurate
Score the Accurate Feelings
Compare Inaccurate and Accurate Thoughts and Feelings
Uncovering the Themes
Solidifying Accurate Thinking
Interpersonal Therapy
How to Develop Healthy Relationships
Building a Relationship with a Higher Power
Developing a Relationship with Self
Building Relationships with Others
How Clients Use Feelings Inappropriately
How Clients Learn Relationship Skills
How to Change Relationships
How to Handle Grief
How to Choose the Therapeutic Modality

Ch 7. Group Therapy
Benefits of the Group Process
The Preparation Statement
The Agenda Group
How to Choose the Order of the Agenda
How to Give Good Feedback
How to Receive Feedback
How to Run the Group
How to Know Which Therapy to Use
The Honesty Group
The Euphoric Recall Group
How to Uncover Euphoric Recall
How to Help the Clients See the Truth
The Reading Group
The Relapse Prevention Group
The Spirituality Group
The Childhood Group
How to Explore Early Parental Relationships
The Men and Women's Group
The Community Group
The Personal Inventory Group

Ch 8. The Contracts
The Chemical Use History
Honesty
Love, Trust and Commitment
Feelings
Relationship Skills
Addictive Relationships
Communication Skills
Self-Discipline
Impulse Control
Relapse Prevention
Stress Management

Ch 9. The Steps
The Committee
Step One
Step Two
Step Three
Step Four
Step Five

Ch 10. The Lectures
The Disease Concept
Defense Mechanisms
The Great Lie
Normal Development
Physical Addiction and Recovery
Alcoholics Anonymous
Feelings
Ch 11. Special Problems
The Psychiatric/Psychological Assessment
How to Develop the Treatment Plan
The Depressed Client
The Angry Client
Personality
The Antisocial Personality
The Borderline Client
The Narcissistic Client
The Anxious Client
The Psychotic Client
Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome
The Client with Low Intellectual Functioning
The Elderly Client
The Client with Early Childhood Trauma
Love in the Treatment Center
The Pathological Gambler
Ch 12. Adolescent Treatment
The Normal Adolescent
The Chemically Dependent Adolescent
The Adolescent Chemical Dependency Counselor
The Primary Elements in Adolescent Treatment
The Phases of Adolescent Treatment
Ch 13. The Family Program
The First Contact
How to Handle the Early AMA Risk
The Family Problems
Codependency
Guilt
Loss of Control
Shame
Caretaking
Enabling
Inability to Know Feelings
Inability to Know Wants
Lack of Trust
People Pleasing
Feelings of Worthlessness
Dependency
Poor Communication Skills
How to Treat Family Members
The Family Program Schedule
The Conjoint Session
Ch 14. The Clinical Staff
The Physician
The Psychologist/Psychiatrist
The Nurse
The Clinical Director
The Clinical Supervisor
The Chemical Dependency Counselor
The Rehabilitation Technician or Aide
The Activities Coordinator
Clinical Staffing
How to Present a Client
Team Building
Commitment to Co-Workers
Boundaries
Staff-Client Problems
What to do When a Client Does Not Like a Counselor
What to do When a Client Complains About a Rule
The Work Environment
Ch 15. The Good Counselor
Being Loving
Loving Counselors Enjoy Their Work
Loving Counselors do Not Become Overly Involved
Loving Counselors do Not Lie
Loving Counselors are Gentle
Good Counselors Love Themselves
Good Counselors are Sensitive
Good Counselors Have a Sixth Sense
Good Counselors do Not Become Overly Emotional
Active Listening
Good Counselors do Not Talk Too Much
Good Counselors Maintain Boundaries
Good Counselors are Patient
Good Counselors Have Effective Interpersonal Relationship Skills
Ch 16. Discharge Summary and Continuing Care
Outpatient Discharge Criteria