Table of Contents

Contents

Acknowledgments

Preface

Trust Yourself and Your Children

Trust Yourself

Raising Children in a Changing World

What Are Your Aims in Raising a Child?

Parents Are Human

Nature and Nurture

Love and Limits

The Diversity of Families

Section I:

Your Child, Age by Age

Before Your Child Is Born

Babies Develop; Parents, Too

Prenatal Care

Delivery

Choosing Your Baby's Doctor

Planning the Homecoming

Helping Siblings Cope

Things You'll Need

Your Newborn, Birth to about Three Months

Enjoy Your Baby

Touch and Bonding

Early Feelings

Parents' Sexual Relations after Delivery

Caring for Your Baby

Feeding and Sleeping

Crying and Comforting

Diapering

Bowel Movements

The Bath
Body Parts
Temperature, Fresh Air, and Sunshine
Common Newborn Concerns

The First Year, Four to Twelve Months

A Time of Firsts
Caring for Your Baby
Feeding and Growth
Sleeping
Crying and Colic
Spoiling
Physical Development
Learning about People
Clothes and Equipment
Common Physical Issues in the First Year

Your Toddler, Twelve to Twenty-Four Months

What Makes Them Tick?
Help Your Toddler Explore Safely
Fears around One Year
Challenging Behaviors
Sleep Issues
Eating and Nutrition
Toilet Training and Learning

Your Two-Year-Old

Being Two
Worries around Two
Challenging Behaviors
Diet and Nutrition
Toilet Training

Your Preschooler, Three to Five Years

Devotion to the Parents
Romantic and Competitive Feelings
Curiosity and Imagination
Sleep Issues
Fears around Three, Four, and Five Worries About Injury and Body Differences

School Age: Six through Eleven Years

Fitting into the Outside World
Social Lives
At Home
Common Behavior Concerns

Adolescence: Twelve to Eighteen Years

A Two-Way Street
Puberty
Other Health Issues
Psychological Tasks
Early Adolescence
Middle Adolescence
Late Adolescence
Advice for Parents

Section II:
Feeding and Nutrition

Feeding in the First Year

What Feeding Means to the Baby
Schedules
Getting Enough and Gaining Weight
Changes and Challenges
Self-Feeding
Vitamins, Supplements, and Special Diets

Breast-Feeding

Benefits of Breast-Feeding
Feelings about Breast-Feeding
How to Give Breast-Feeding a Fair Trial
The Nursing Mother's Physical Condition
Getting Started at Breast-Feeding
How the Nursing Pattern Gets Established
Is Your Baby Getting Enough?
The Working Mother
Problems during Breast-Feeding
Manual Expression and Breast Pumps
Breast and Bottle Combinations
Weaning from the Breast

Formula Feeding

Choosing and Preparing Formula
Washing and Sterilization
Mixing the Formula
Bottling the Formula
Formula Refrigeration
Giving the Bottle
Weaning from Bottle to Cup

Starting Solid Foods

Healthy Diets Start Young
When and How to Start
Meals at Six Months

Nutrition and Health

What Is Good Nutrition?
As a Society, We Need to Change
Building Blocks of Nutrition
A Healthier Diet
Sensible Food Choices
Simple Meals
Tips for Happy Eating

Feeding Problems and Eating Disorders

How Feeding Problems Start
What to Do
Special Problems
Eating Disorders

Section III:

Raising Mentally Healthy Children

What Children Need

Early Relationships
Emotional Needs
Parents as Companions
The Father as Parent
Self-Esteem
Beyond Parenting
Raising Children in a Troubled Society

Work and Child Care

Family and Career
Time with Your Child
Child Care Alternatives
Choosing Day Care
After-School Care
Babysitters

Discipline

What Discipline Is Punishment
Tips for Limit-Setting
Parents' Feelings Matter
Manners

Grandparents
Sexuality
The Facts of Life
Talking with Teens about Sex
How Sexuality Develops
Gender Differences and Homosexuality

The Media
Living with the Media
Television
Video Games
Movies
Rock and Roll and Rap
The Internet

Different Types of Families
Adoption
Single-Parent Families
Stepfamilies
Gay and Lesbian Parents
Stresses and Traumas
The Meaning of Stress
Terrorism and Disasters
Physical Abuse
Sexual Abuse
Domestic Violence
Death
Separation from a Parent
Divorce

Section IV:
Common Developmental and Behavioral Challenges

Sibling Rivalry
Jealousy between Siblings
The Many Faces of Jealousy
Jealousy of the New Baby
Siblings with Special Needs
Acting Out
Temper Tantrums
Swearing and Back Talk
Biting
Hyperactivity (ADHD)

Messiness, Dawdling, and Whining
Messiness
Dawdling
Whining

Habits
Thumb-Sucking
Other Infant Habits
Rhythmic Habits
Nail-Biting
Stuttering

Toilet Training, Soiling, and Bed-Wetting
Readiness for Toilet Training
A Gentle Training Approach
Bladder Control
Setbacks in Bowel and Bladder Control
Soiling
Bed-Wetting

Children with Disabilities
An Unexpected Journey
Coping within the Family
Taking Action
Early Intervention and Special Education
Mental Retardation
Autism
Down Syndrome
Other Special Needs

Getting Help
Why People Seek Help
First Steps
Types of Therapy
Working Together

Section V:
Learning and School

Learning and the Brain
The New Brain Science
Ready for School
Reading Aloud
Preschool

School and School Problems
What School Is For Learning to Read
Physical Education
Parents and Schools
Homework
Problems in School
Learning Disabilities
The Unpopular Child
School Avoidance

Planning for College
What College Is For Choosing a College
College Entrance Exams
Saving for College

Section VI:
Health and Safety

General Medical Issues
Your Child’s Doctor
Regular Checkups
Telephone Calls to Your Doctor
f0 Fevers
Diet during Illness
Giving Medicine
Isolation for Contagious Diseases
Caring for a Sick Child
Going to the Hospital

Immunizations
How Vaccines work
Risks of Immunization
The Immunization Schedule
Coping with Shots
A Practical Tip
Preventing Injuries

Keeping Children Safe
Riding in Cars
Streets and Driveways
Bicycle Injuries
Playground Injuries
Sports and Recreation Safety
Cold- and Hot-Weather Injuries
Sun Safety
Preventing Insect Bites
Preventing Dog Bites
Fireworks and Trick or Treat
Dangers at Home
Drowning and Water Safety
Fire, Smoke, and Burns
Poisons
Lead and Mercury
Choking
Suffocation and Strangulation
Guns in the Home
Falls
Toy Safety
Home Safety Equipment

First Aid and Emergencies

Cuts and Scratches
Splinters
Bites
Bleeding
Burns
Skin Infections
Objects in Nose and Ears
Objects in the Eye
Sprains and Strains
Fractures
Neck and Back Injuries
Head Injuries
Swallowed Objects
Poisons
Allergic Reactions
Convulsions and Seizures
Drowning
Choking and Rescue Breathing
Home First-Aid Kit

Dental Development and Oral Health
Tooth Development
Teething
What Makes Good Teeth?
Dental Office Visits
Tooth Decay
Toothbrushing and Flossing
Sealants
Dental Injuries
Preventing Mouth Injuries

Common Childhood Illnesses
Colds
Ear Infections
Tonsils and Adenoids
Sore Throat and Swollen Glands
Croup and Epiglottitis
Influenza, Bronchitis, and Pneumonia
Headaches
Stomach Aches and Intestinal Infections
Constipation
Genital and Urinary Disturbances
Allergies
Asthma
Eczema
Other Skin Conditions
Classic Childhood Infections
Tuberculosis (TB)
Reye's Syndrome
Joints and Bones
Heart Murmurs
Hemias and Testicle Problems
Eye Problems
Neurological Problems
Hormonal Disturbances
Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)