Critical Neuroscience: A Handbook of the Social and Cultural Contexts of Neuroscience

Choudhury, Suparna

Table of Contents

- About the editors.
- About the contributors.
- Preface.

Introduction: Critical Neuroscience: Between Lifeworld and Laboratory (Suparna Choudhury and Jan Slaby).

Part I – Motivations and Foundations.

- Chapter 1: Proposal for a Critical Neuroscience (Jan Slaby and Suparna Choudhury).
- Chapter 2: The Need for a Critical Neuroscience. From Neuroideology to Neurotechnology (Steven Rose).
- Chapter 4: Scanning the Lifeworld: Toward a Critical Neuroscience of Action and Interaction (Shaun Gallagher).

Part II – Histories of the Brain.

- Chapter 5: Toys are Us. Models and Metaphors in Brain Science (Cornelius Borck).
- Chapter 6: The Neuromance of Cerebral History (Max Stadler).
- Chapter 7: Empathic Cruelty and the Origins of the Social Brain (Allan Young).

Part III – Neuroscience in Context: From Laboratory to Lifeworld.

- Chapter 8: Disrupting Images: Neuroscientific representations in the lives of psychiatric patients (Simon Cohn).
- Chapter 9: Critically Producing Brain Images of Mind (Joseph Dumit).
- Chapter 11: Delirious Brain Chemistry and Controlled Culture: Exploring the Contextual Mediation of Drug Effects (Nicolas Langlitz).

Part IV – Situating the brain in context: from lifeworld back to laboratory?

- Chapter 12: Critical Neuroscience: From Neuroimaging to Tea Leaves in the Bottom of a Cup (Amir Raz).
- Chapter 13: The Salmon of Doubt: Six Months of Methodological Controversy within Social Neuroscience (Daniel Margules).
- Chapter 14: Cultural Neuroscience as Critical Neuroscience in Practice (Joan Y. Chiao and Bobby K. Cheon).

Part V – Beyond neural correlates: Ecological approaches to psychiatry.

- Chapter 15: Re-Socializing Psychiatry: Critical Neuroscience and the Limits of Reductionism (Laurence J. Kirmayer and Ian Gold).
- Chapter 16: Are Mental Illnesses Diseases of the Brain? (Thomas Fuchs).
- Chapter 17: Are there neural correlates of depression? (Fernando Vidal and Francisco Ortega).