Clinical Interview Using DSM-IV-TR, Volume 1: Fundamentals

Othmer, Ekkehard MD, PhD

Table of Contents

List of Figures
List of Tables
About the Authors
Foreword to the Second Edition
   Allen J. Frances
Foreword to the First Edition
   Robert L. Spitzer
Preface to the DSM-IV-TR Edition
Preface to the Second Edition
Acknowledgments
Ch. 1. Prologue: Framework
1. Insight- and Symptom-Oriented Interviewing
2. The Four Components
3. The Multiphasic Approach
4. Disorder-Specific Interviewing
Ch. 2. Strategies for Rapport
1. Put the Patient and Yourself at Ease
2. Find the Suffering - Show Compassion
3. Assess Insight - Become an Ally
4. Show Expertise
5. Establish Leadership
6. Balance the Roles
Ch. 3. Strategies to Get Information: Techniques
1. Complaints
2. Resistance
3. Defenses
Ch. 4. Three Methods to Assess Mental Status
1. Observation
2. Conversation
3. Exploration
Ch. 5. Testing
1. Level of Consciousness: Lethargy, Stupor, and Coma
2. Attention and Vigilance: Distractibility and Perseveration
3. Memory: Amnesia and Inability to Learn
4. Orientation: Confusion
5. Language: Aphasia
6. Knowing: Agnosia
7. Performing: Apraxia
8. Pathological Reflexes and Movements
9. Range of Affect
10. Suggestibility: Dissociation
11. Abstract Thinking: Concreteness
12. Intelligence: Dementia, Mental Retardation
13. Serial Testing of Selected Psychological States
Ch. 6. Five Steps to Make a Diagnosis
1. Diagnostic Clues
2. Diagnostic Criteria
3. Psychiatric History
4. Diagnosis
5. Prognosis
Ch. 7. Five Phases and the Four Components: How to Put it all Together
1. Phase 1: Warm-Up and Screening of the Problem
2. Phase 2: Follow-Up of Preliminary Impressions
3. Phase 3: History and Database
4. Phase 4: Diagnosis and Feedback
5. Phase 5: Prognosis and Treatment Contract
6. Interview With a Cooperative Patient
Case Summary Format

Ch. 8. A Difficult Patient

Ch. 9. Disorder-Specific Interviewing: Clinical Disorders
1. Perplexity and Suspiciousness in Dementia
2. Deception and Denial in Alcohol Abuse and Dependence
3. Irritable Hyperactivity in Bipolar Disorder
4. Suspiciousness in Delusional Disorder
5. Avoidance in Phobia
6. Disbelief and Embarrassment in Panic Disorder
7. Persecutory Feelings in Mental Retardation
8. Laziness in Narcolepsy

Ch. 10. Disorder-Specific Interviewing: Personality Disorders
1. Emotional Withdrawal and Odd Behavior - Cluster A
2. Exaggerated, Dramatic Emotionality - Cluster B
3. Anxious, Resistive Submissiveness - Cluster C
4. Personality Disorders Not Otherwise Specified

Epilogue
Glossary
Appendix
Bibliography
Index