Table of Contents

I. Background and Perspectives: Providing the Foundations for Understanding
   Introduction: Different Ways of Understanding Young Children and Trauma
   1. Rainbows of Tears, Souls Full of Hope: Cultural Issues Related to Young Children and Trauma, Marva L. Lewis and Chandra Ghosh Ippen
   2. Trauma and Attachment: The Case for Disrupted Attachment Disorder, Sarah Hinshaw-Fuselier, Sheryl Scott Heller, Victoria T. Parton, Lara Robinson, and Neil W. Boris

II. Assessment, Diagnosis, and Treatment
   Introduction: What Are We Assessing for, and Why?
   4. Assessment and Treatment of Young Children Exposed to Traumatic Events, Alicia F. Lieberman and Patricia Van Horn
   5. Diagnostic and Treatment Issues in Cases of Childhood Trauma, Stacy A. Klapper, Nancy S. Plummer, and Robert J. Harmon
   6. Relationship Assessment for Young Traumatized Children, Julie A. Larrieu and Shana M. Bellow
   7. Identification, Assessment, and Intervention for Young Traumatized Children within a Pediatric Setting, Betsy McAlister Groves and Marilyn Augustyn
   8. Traumatized Young Children: Assessment and Treatment Processes, Theodore J. Gaensbauer

III. How to Reach Seriously Traumatized Children Earlier
   Introduction: Collaborations for Young Children with Juvenile Courts, Law Enforcement, and Child Welfare
   9. Healing the Child in Juvenile Court, Joy D. Osofsky and Cindy Lederman
   10. Partnerships for Young Children in Court: How Judges Shape Collaborations Serving Traumatized Children, Patricia Van Horn and Donna J. Hitchens
   12. How Law Enforcement and Mental Health Professionals Can Partner to Help Traumatized Children, Joy D. Osofsky, Jill Hayes Hammer, Nancy Freeman, and J. Michael Rovaris

IV. Directions for the Future
   13. How Research Informs Clinical Work with Traumatized Young Children, Michelle Bosquet
   14. Perspectives on Clinical Work with Traumatized Young Children: How to Deal with Feelings Emerging from Trauma Work, Joy D. Osofsky