Helping Bereaved Children: A Handbook for Practitioners

Webb, Nancy Boyd

Table of Contents

I. Introduction
1. The Child and Death, Nancy Boyd Webb
2. Assessment of the Bereaved Child, Nancy Boyd Webb

II. Death in the Family
3. The Death of a Grandparent or a Parent, Lois Carey
4. The Grief of Siblings, Betty Davies and Rana Limbo
5. The Disenfranchised Grief of Children, David A. Crenshaw and Jennifer Lee
7. The Loss and Death of a Pet, Sharon M. McMahon
8. War-Related Deaths in the Family, Diane L. Scott

III. Death in the School and the Wider World
9. The Terminally Ill Child in School and the Sudden Death of a Teacher, Roxia Bullock
10. Violent, Traumatic Deaths in Schools and Community Responses, Patti Homan Anewalt
11. Children’s and Adolescents’ Exposure to the Mass Violence of War and Terrorism: Role of the Media, Kathleen Nader
12. Deaths Connected to Natural Disasters, Jennifer Baggerly and Alison Salloum

IV. Interventions with Bereaved Children
13. Cognitive-Behavioral Therapy and Play Therapy for Childhood Trauma and Loss, Janine Shelby
14. Conjoint Caregiver–Child Treatment Following a Parent’s Death, Patricia Van Hon
15. Bereavement Groups and Camps for Children: An Interdisciplinary Approach, Priscilla A. Ruffin and Sarah A. Zimmerman
16. Storytelling with Bereaved Children, Donna O’Toole

V. Help for Counselors, Parents, and Teachers
17. Professional Self-Care and Prevention of Secondary Trauma, Tina Maschi and Derek Brown
18. Guidelines to Help Parents and Teachers of Bereaved Children, Nancy Boyd Webb

Resources:
*Selected Training Programs and Certifications
*Suppliers of Play Materials
*Bereavement Resources
*References on Religious/Cultural/Ethnic Practices Related to Death