Table of Contents

Preface
Contributors
1.  The Physiologic Basis of Manipulation
    Scott T. Stoll, David Russo
2.  The Efficacy of Manipulative Treatment
    James W. Atchison
3.  Chiropractic Therapy in the Rehabilitation of Neuromusculoskeletal Diseases
    Ralph E. Gay, Craig F. Nelson
4.  Massage as a Form of Complementary and Alternative Healing Modality for Physical Manipulation
    Jackson C. Tan
5.  Tai Chi Chuan
    Steven L. Wolf, Michael J. O’Grady, Tingsen Xu
6.  Yoga in Medicine
    Loren Fishman
7.  The Alexander Technique
    Glenna Batson
8.  Prayer, Meditation, and Spirituality in Rehabilitation
    Ann C. Cotter, Valerie Spangenberg, Gregory Mulford, Julie Wilcox
9.  Biofeedback as an Adjunct in Rehabilitation Medicine
    Nomita Sonty
10. Clinical Hypnosis
    Philip R. Appel
11. Acupuncture: From Qi to Biomedical Science
    Gary Kaplan
12. Nutritional Therapy in Rehabilitation
    Ronald L. Hoffman
    Samuel C. Shiflett
14. Reading the Complementary and Alternative Medicine Literature
    Mark A. Thomas
15. Paying for Complementary and Alternative Medicine
    James Dillard
16. Low Back Pain: An Integrative Treatment Approach
    Gary Kaplan, Robert Umlauf
17. Alternative Therapies for Complications of Diabetes Mellitus
    Richard K. Bernstein
18. Qi Gong Exercise in the Treatment of Cumulative Trauma Disorder
    Philip Harris
19. Clinical Applications of Magnetic Therapy for Neuropathic Pain
    Michael I. Weintraub
Index